All this took place to fulfill what the Lord had said through the prophet: "The virgin will be with child and will give birth to a son, and they will call him Immanuel" which means, "God with us." Matthew 1:22 - 23

Mission Minded

If you have ever wondered how much impact a church mission trip makes, whether stateside or international, Donald Davis is a living testimony to what God can do when you least expect it. Brother Donald was born in Harrington, Kansas October 20, 1937. He married Margaret Lively July 25, 1959. They have two children and four grandchildren. As a member of First Baptist Zachary, he traveled on mission trips with the church, while owning a hardware business for eleven years. After serving on short mission trips in Honduras, Mexico, and other places, Davis was called into full time Christian service in 1984. He and his wife sold their business, their acreage, their home, and moved to New Orleans so he could study at NOBTS. He received an Associate's Degree from NOBTS, but he also pursued Master level courses while he was there.

Their first assignment with the IMB was to a region in West Africa, the Gambia, where they worked with the Mandinka tribe. Muslims constituted more than 90% of the population while Christians of different denominations and indigenous religions accounted for the remainder. The Mandinka tribe was and still is the largest ethnic group. Thanks in part to British colonization, the New Testament had been translated into the dialect only years before the Davises arrived. Because no language school was available, the Davises learned the language from the local people and through day-to-day experiences. They served in Gambia from 1986 through 1991 when Mrs. Margaret's health no longer permitted the lifestyle required.

Mrs. Margaret is completely accurate when she describes her husband as a man with a big heart and a servant's attitude. "Age doesn't have anything to do with it," she says. "He will serve and work until he can't anymore. I don't know what I would do if he retired! I do know that when the Holy Spirit tells him to do something, he does it."

Donald has been serving at the Baptist Association of Greater Baton Rouge for 15 years. He served as Seamen Center Director from January 1992 until January 1996 before coming to Judson Baptist Association as Coordinator of Missions and Ministries. He served as the interim DOM after Rev. T. W. Terral and before Dr. Roddy Conerly. He is currently the Minister of Missions, Ministries, and Multiplication (3M). He is invaluable not only as a mentor to young ministers in our community but as a visionary for this Association. We thought you might enjoy knowing a little bit more about our beloved 3M Coordinator. Above is a picture of our very own Donald Davis who celebrated 70 years of age this past October. If you haven't seen him in a while, come by and visit...his door is always open!

God's Vision: Can You See It?

Rodrick E. Conerly, Executive Director

Pastor Red Brick was having a good natured chuckle at himself as he realized he had just been tricked. During the past twenty minutes he had felt a number of emotional responses to the exercise he had been asked to accomplish. His initial response of confidence to the task he had been given soon changed to bewilderment. As he looked around the room he realized that he was not alone in his reaction. Four of the other five men in the room working on the same task had similar responses.

These five men served churches close to one another. They and Pastor Red Brick had been invited by Brother Vision Nary of the Local Association to participate in a workshop on "God's Vision for the Local Church." The initial exercise Brother Vision Nary had given them was to select one of six quart size zip lock bags. The bag had a number from one to six on the outside and contained a child's 100 piece jigsaw puzzle. The instructions were simple. Each man had twenty minutes to complete the puzzle.

As he emptied the zip lock bag on the table in front of him, Pastor Red Brick noticed immediately that something was missing. At first Pastor Red Brick had felt confident that he could complete what appeared to be child's play without any problem. But his confidence soon changed to bewilderment when he realized he had no picture to guide him.

He decided that without a picture, his first task was to determine the borders of the puzzle. His confidence returned as he put together the last piece of the border of the puzzle. But just then Brother Vision Nary began to call time as the first five minutes had elapsed. His confidence changed to frustration as he realized he only had fifteen minutes to complete the rest of the puzzle without a picture to guide him. He hurriedly began to search for matching pieces.

As he searched for pieces to match together, he muttered to himself, "I sure wish I had a picture to show me what this would look like when it is completed." He began to sort the puzzle pieces into groups of the same color. Then he began to assemble the colored pieces. A hint of confidence returned just as Brother Vision Nary announced the ten minute mark. Red did not have even half the puzzle together.

Out of the corner of his eye he saw Pastor Onya Knees hold up his picture and look with satisfaction at his completed puzzle. With a look of disbelief, he said to Brother Vision Nary, "Why does he get a picture to guide him and I don't?"

"Hey, Red," said Brother Sav'em All, "I have a picture. Want to use mine?"

"Nah," said Red, "It probably won't be the right picture for my puzzle."

"Five minutes left," said Brother Vision Nary.

Red returned to the puzzle more frustrated than before. He noticed that of the five pastors, Brother Onya Knees was the only one with a completed puzzle. As he continued to attack the puzzle, parts of the picture came together. He had part of a mountain scene with a waterfall completed when Brother Vision Nary called time and made them all stop. Red had only completed about one-third of the puzzle.

Brother Vision Nary began to explain what the puzzles had to do with discerning God's vision for the local church. Puzzle number one had all 100 pieces but no picture. Puzzle number two had all of the edge pieces removed. Puzzle number three had 100 pieces but they were mixed from three different puzzles. Puzzle number four had the picture and the edge pieces but a large number of the pieces were missing. Puzzle number five had all 100 pieces with the picture.

Brother Vision Nary explained, "Puzzle number one with all 100 pieces but no picture represents a church that functions without a vision. The people work hard, but no one knows what is to be accomplished." He continued, "Puzzle number two with the edge pieces removed represents a church with a vision that never has been clarified and has no framework within which to operate. These people work under a generic vision that they adopted from another church or pastor. The vision did not develop from God's leadership for their church specifically."

"Puzzle number three with 100 pieces mixed from different puzzles represents a church with many visions that generally will divide and cause disunity within the church. When the pastor presents no vision, the members will begin to do something without his leadership."

"Puzzle number four with the picture and the edge pieces but with lots of pieces missing represents the church with part of the vision. These people got impatient and did not wait for God's timing and for the complete vision to develop. They began to work without getting a complete picture of the vision from God."

"Puzzle number five with all the pieces in the picture represents what can be accomplished when the entire church works together with a common vision."

As the effect of the exercise began to be realized by the pastors in the room, Brother Vision Nary said, "Bob Logan on page 34 of his book, Beyond Church Growth, wrote the following about the importance of the pastor's vision for the local church:

The most universal fact emerging from our research was this: It is the personal vision of a pastor or church planter, and his or her ability to communicate that vision that drives churches to growth."

Brother Vision Nary continued, "Your vision for the church where God has placed you must present a clear and challenging picture of the future. The vision must present an image of God's PREFERRED FUTURE for the church and the community surrounding the church. As the leader of the church placed there under the Lordship of Jesus Christ, what do you believe the church can and must become? Above all, you must paint a picture with words if you hope to get others to see the vision."

Pastor Red Brick realized that he never had been challenged like this. Here was an exciting and new way of looking at what God wants to accomplish in the local church. For the first time in his many years of ministry, someone was challenging him with the questions:

“What does God want your church to be?” and “What do you as pastor have to do so that it will become what God wants it to be?”

Pastor Red Brick needed an illustration and asked Brother Vision Nary, “Could you show us an example of the association’s vision?”

Brother Vision Nary replied, “The Local Association is a network of churches and missions functioning as agents for positive change in the spiritual, social, and cultural fabric of their communities through Christian redemption and determination. This vision will be accomplished by penetrating the community with the Gospel of Jesus Christ through family and community orientation, and social involvement that exemplifies the caring and sharing nature of Jesus Christ in order to effect life transformation in individuals, families, and communities. Actions developing from this vision will be relationship based, evangelism centered, service oriented, and training focused.”

Brother Vision Nary continued, “The vision statement is the first sentence of what I just presented. The rest is merely explanation of how the vision will be accomplished. The accomplishment of vision develops into the mission statements that must follow. The mission of the local church within its community must develop from the vision God has given for the church.”

Pastor Red Brick and the other men in the room began to nod as they mentally formed the picture of the churches of the association working as a network of connected churches. Each church would have its unique vision as part of that larger network of churches as their members caught the vision for their specific church and began to penetrate the local community as agents of transformation.

Each man in the room realized that his task was to capture God’s vision for the church he served and then to cast that vision to the members of the church so that everyone could understand what God wanted each person to do so that the church would achieve God’s preferred future.

TRUST? In a Prison?

Donald Davis, 3M Coordinator

“Trust...you gotta trust again” was the theme of the annual tent revival at LA Correctional Institute for Woman in St. Gabriel. The first of four services was held in the gym because of inclement weather. A baptism service was held after lunch in the chapel. Twenty-two were baptized after having accepted Jesus as their Lord and Savior during the worship services and one-on-one personal evangelistic encounter. Five women were assured of their salvation while nineteen others rededicated their lives to more obedient walks with their Lord.

Average attendance for the four services was 193 with the highest one being 211 in attendance. The average attendance by unchurched women was between 75 and 100. Associational pastors and state convention leaders preached and led in worship during the revival. Volunteers from Louisiana and Texas ministered in many ways, from eating with the ladies in the cafeteria to assisting in putting up and taking down the tent.

In 2008, the Annual Tent Revival will be October 3 - 5. Make plans now to participate in any way the Lord leads.

I’d like to extend a special thanks to all who gave of their time and efforts to this ministry.

EP: Phone Home

Mary Smith, Prayer Team Member

His first words were much like yours: “Ma-ma, Da-da, no, mine, ball, go”. Between the years of one and five, he had no trouble calling out to Mommy or Daddy for assistance. At the age of ten, it seemed that Daddy was his hero, fixer of all things and no one could bake like Mommy. There were always a lot of “I love you”s to go around.

The teen years arrived with many changes. Mommy and Daddy became Mom and Dad. Their names were spoken more with pleading and asking permission or forgiveness rather than expressing love and admiration. When the cell phone came along with caller ID, their names were often totally ignored.

College arrived and phone calls became less frequent. Usually the calls were more about “I need money” or some car emergency. Phone calls morphed into quizzes from Mom always with the same answers: “Fine... OK... Will do... Love you, too.”

Now in adulthood, Mom and Dad wait eagerly for the son to call. Oh, he calls on Mother’s Day, Father’s Day, and birthdays. Sometimes even on a Sunday. Of course, he calls if there is a big decision to be made or a crisis to be handled. But the relationship has definitely changed.

Is God eagerly waiting to hear your voice? Is your life— and mine—constantly so busy that we seldom take the time to call on God?

When was the last time you called home? “Call to me and I will answer you [He doesn’t hang up] and will tell you great and hidden things that you have not known.” Jeremiah 33:3

If you need help and encouragement in your prayer life, as I do, then EP: Phone Home! Experience Prayer and talk to your Father!

Make plans to attend the EXPERIENCING PRAYER WITH JESUS CONFERENCE Friday and Saturday, February 15th and 16th in 2008, downtown at First Baptist Church of Baton Rouge. For details check bagbr.org.

We are looking forward to what God will do at this event and certainly hope you will be a part of it.

You have our sympathy!

If you have not been at JBRC during the last two or three months, we are so sorry for you! From women's retreats to eighth grade boys' retreats, weddings to singles retreats, children's choir retreats to wagon rides in the early morning! God is alive and touching lives in this precious place! The weather has been beautiful and lives have been changed!

Mother/Daughter Equestrian Weekend

"Place these words on your hearts... Teach them to your children. Talk about them wherever you are, sitting at home or walking in the street; talk about them from the time you get up in the morning until you fall into bed at night." Deuteronomy 11:18a - 19. Communication with our families and our Lord was the theme of the first annual Mother/Daughter Equestrian Retreat. Utilizing horsemanship instruction, our mothers, daughters, and GRANDMOTHERS learned about using correct communication skills to resolve conflict. Becky Brown provided music in our worship times and Kathy Frady, a Christian dramatist, used her gifts in drama to make learning about communication a pleasant and funny experience! What an amazing happening as mothers and daughters rode horses together, played games, and sang campfire songs. There were thirteen sets of M/D teams and a total of thirty-four in attendance. (Pictures are at left.)

Baptist Collegiate Ministry

Steve Masters, BCM Director

Our Tiger Legacy Building Renovation is continuing. We are making progress and hope to finish the project in March or April. We still need volunteer help. Volunteers can work during the day, at night, or Saturdays. If you would like to help, call us at 225-343-0408.

The total renovation is estimated to cost $1,836,977.00. As of today we have raised $1,623,816.38. This leaves us $213,160.02 short of completing the project. We have raised $811,908.19 from alumni, parents, current students, and local churches. The Louisiana Baptist Convention has pledged $900,000.00 in matching funds toward the project and contributed $811,908.19. This means they will match the next $89,000.00 in contributions of the project. If your church hasn't made a pledge and/or contribution toward the project, we would ask you to do so.

We continue to have a good year of ministry. Due to the renovation we aren't sponsoring our Monday and Thursday Lunches. We are having our TNT worship services at University Baptist Church. Our participation isn't as strong as in the past but it's still pretty good. We do have an excellent group of freshmen. They are fired up about being a part of ministering in the renovated center when it is completed.

Our annual Disciple Now Weekend for Kids in the 2nd to 6th grade and Tiger Olympics for Kids in Kindergarten to 6th grade will be held on Friday night, February 29th and Saturday, March 1st. If your church is interested in participating, please contact us. Our BCM students are available to lead Disciple Now Weekends for youth groups during the Spring Semester.

Thanks for your support of our ministry. We also want to say a special word of thanks to University Baptist Church for their hospitality in hosting our TNT services.

Retreat Testimony

The Lord has blessed our Association with an outstanding retreat center. For years, pastors have been given the opportunity to come to the retreat center and stay in the hotel free of charge. Since 1999, I have taken advantage of this very generous offer. I try to slip away three or four times a year for a two day study and prayer retreat. I have found that I get more done in those forty-eight hours than I do during two weeks of office hours! The time at the retreat center has been a significant spiritual discipline in my life that has refreshed me many times over.

I felt compelled to mention this wonderful resource to my fellow pastors, especially after learning that just a few of us take advantage of this opportunity. Eugene and Debi Morris provide great leadership in the care and the coordination of ministries at the retreat center. I would encourage you to give them a call to set up a time for a personal study and prayer retreat or to coordinate a ministry event for your church. May the Lord bless you and your church family. (The Retreat Center phone number is 888-490-8263.)

Rejoice,
